FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Live Voter Turnout Data Available for 2018 Primary Election

ALACHUA COUNTY, Fla. (August 22, 2018) — Live voter turnout data for the 2018 Primary Election is available on the Alachua County Supervisor of Elections’ website.

Updated in real time, the data is available at <https://www.votealachua.com/turnoutupdate2018primary>.

Data can be filtered based on precinct, party, date, location and type of vote (early voting, vote-by-mail or Election Day).

As of 9:30 a.m. today, 6.94 percent of voters (12,122 of 174,697 active registered voters) had cast ballots.

All Alachua County voters are eligible to vote in this election and will have contests on their ballots, though a voter’s political affiliation will affect the ballot he or she receives.

For more information, contact the Alachua County Supervisor of Elections at 352-374-5252.
