FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

2018 Primary Election Sample Ballots Mailed and Available

ALACHUA COUNTY, Fla. (August 15, 2018) — Sample ballots for the 2018 Primary Election, which will be held August 28, have been mailed.

Because Florida is a Closed Primary State, the sample ballot a voter receives is based on his or her political affiliation. Those who were registered with the Florida Democratic Party and the Republican Party of Florida by July 30 will receive Democratic and Republican sample ballots, respectively. All other voters, including those registered with minor parties, will receive nonpartisan sample ballots, which list races open to voters countywide.

The sample ballot includes a list of precincts and polling locations. Information on early voting, voting by mail, Election Day voting and other elections-related subjects is also on the sample ballot.

All registered Alachua County voters are able to vote in this election.

Digital copies of the sample ballots are available online at VoteAlachua.com/Elections/Sample-Ballots. Voters can view their individual sample ballots by going to VoteAlachua.com/My-Registration-Status.
